

Franklin Barn Market

at Willowbrook Farm

2015 Application Process

Friday, July 17th 8a.m.-10a.m. first dibbs shopping, regular hours 10a.m.-6p.m., Saturday, July 18th 8a.m.-5p.m. all regular hours

We are so excited to be able to share our Farm and location with you! We were blessed to have purchased this farm in the summer of 2013 and it never fails to amaze me just how big the sky really is as the sun sets here. Located just 15 minutes south of Nashville, Franklin offers historic sites, restaurants, shopping and an amazing group of people who seem to have written the rules on southern hospitality. Come for the show, stay a few days for the experience. If you already live here you know that this is the perfect place for an event such as this. We can't wait to see you all!

We are looking for "junkers", "barn pickers", "antiquers", shabby chic masters and downright creative artisans that have a knack for finding or creating beauty from all things old or newly blooming. We are looking for a variety to offer our shoppers of Upscale vintage, antique, repurposed and artisan home and garden goods. Our goal is to have vendors on board that scour and dig deep beyond Goodwill and yard sales to find unique, functional and original Americana or European Goods predominantly 1950's and older.

Please note that this is not a craft sale. Also, you may not include mass produced, resale goods in your booth.

Congratulations! By coming to this page you are one step closer to being a part of a great time and event in Franklin TN. We don't want you to miss anything so get your application in quick! What to do?
